

SALEM ARTS ASSOCIATION THE PAULA BEAULIEU ART SCHOLARSHIP

The Paula Beaulieu Art Scholarship

Sponsored through the Salem Arts Association, SalemArts.org

Paula Frances Beaulieu (May 28, 1947 — January 24, 2014)

Paula obtained her B.S. degree from Lowell State University before obtaining her M.S. in Arts & Education at Florida Atlantic University. Her career included teaching grades 2 and 5 at Pearl St. School in Reading, Mass., author of children's educational books, counselor and educational toy developer to name a few. Most notably, Paula was an art educator, running her own business teaching people of all ages to "Connect with Their Creativity" for over 15 years. Paula was an artist throughout her life, a legacy she brought forward from her mother Rita Casey.

After growing up in Methuen, Mass., Paula resided in Hollywood, Florida and Reading, Mass. (where she raised her two sons Dan and Matt) before moving to Salem, Mass., where she spent her remaining years. "Creativity occurs in the moment, and in the moment we are timeless."

—The Artist's Way: A Spiritual Path to Higher Creativity by Julia Cameron

Award Purpose:

The Paula Beaulieu Scholarship is a perpetual one which will be awarded each spring for $1000 to a student pursuing the visual arts either through a university program or through an art school. All of the visual arts will be considered. Paula Beaulieu was an active artist in the Salem Arts Association and taught young and old alike through her program "Connect with Their Creativity." Her family has chosen Salem Arts Association and Salem High School as beneficiaries of any donations made in her honor.

Eligibility:

Students in the 12th grade going on to the college of their choice the following autumn who are in financial need are eligible. A personal artist statement and 5 images (JPGs) are required.

Recommendations from your teachers are acceptable but not necessary.
